Children's Theatre of Charlotte's "Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing" Kicks of 2010 with Lots of Laughs

Children's Theatre of Charlotte kicks off 2010 with "Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing," coming to the McColl Family Theatre from January 22 - February 14, 2010. This funny, touching tale of sibling rivalry is based on the best-selling book by beloved children's author Judy Blume.

Oh, brother! Peter Hatcher's life sure does seem complicated for a nine-year-old. One of his biggest problems is dealing with his impossible little brother, Fudge. From birthday parties to playground adventures to school projects, Fudge has a way of ruining everything without ever really getting in trouble for his antics. Parents and brothers and sisters alike will enjoy this hilarious portrait of family life.

"Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing" is directed by Nicia Carla. The six-person cast of professional actors includes Ashby Blakely as Peter Hatcher and Jon Parker Douglas as Fudge, as well as Matt Keffer, Barbi VanSchaick, Mark Sutton and Amy Van Looy.

Performance times and dates are:

Friday, January 22	7:30 pm
Saturday, January 23	1:00 pm
Saturday, January 23	3:00 pm
