Spelling 2-5-5

By Jennifer Overton

About the show

Have you ever wanted to be a star? Simon's a terrific speller, and now he has a chance to shine as a contestant on a televised spelling bee. Simon's brother, Jake, who has autism, unwittingly reveals he's also a gifted speller in a way that's uniquely his. Sibling rivalry takes center stage as Simon faces choices about his role as the protective big brother and his desire to gain celebrity status.

Show sponsors

Bank of America, Atrium Health, Lise & Travis Hain, Anita & Bruce LaRowe, Mary & Doug McCurry, and The Watts Family. Adventurer series sponsored by: BlackArch.

Meet Simon and Jake! These brothers spend a lot of time together, but they're definitely unique guys....

Simon and Jake are off to school. Simon is excited to hear about the upcoming spelling bee show, but then Gordon comes to cause Jake some trouble....

Jake and Simon's mother is working hard to meet everyone's needs and keep their lives running as smoothly as possible.

It's back to school for Simon and Jake, but that bully Gordon is taking things too far!

Jake and Simon's mother is doing her best to fix the bullying situation at school. Simon is feeling a lot of pressure, too.

Simon is off to try out for the spelling bee show, and Laurie makes a cool connection with Jake!

It's time for Simon to show off his spelling talents!

Laurie is so excited to share Jake's unique talent with his family, but what happens when Simon realizes that his talent might not be his own?

Jake and Simon's mother is so proud to see both of her boys participating together in the spelling bee!

Simon is up first! He's ready to go, but what happens when it's Jake's turn to come out for his audition?

Simon and Jake may be back into their comic book routine, but their relationship has changed for the better!

Thanks for joining us at Children's Theatre of Charlotte for this special performance. We hope to see you at our other sensory-friendly performances in the future. For details, visit: ctcharlotte.org/online/article/sensory-friendly-performances.
